Gentle Reminders

- Please be patient at the entrance to the venue and films. Line-ups happen. Volunteers try to get people through the doors as quickly as possible. If you have questions, concerns, suggestions or compliments, please speak to one of the volunteers or Festival staff.
- Seating is first-come, first-served. Some films may be full. It's suggested that you have a backup plan in case the film you want to see is full. Arrive at screening rooms in good time for the showing to get your seat. This maximizes your chance of getting to see the film of your choice. There is no reserved seating. No standing permitted. Check your Program Guide to see which films are being repeated.

- Once the film has started, respect the audience by not entering late. If you do enter late, please be quiet and courteous.
- If you need to munch, please do it before or after a screening. No food or beverages (except water in a sealed container) are allowed in the screening rooms.
- Bring your own water bottles. There are two drinking fountains onsite and water stations available.

- Bring your own coffee cups for coffee or hot beverages.
- Please vacate the screening room promptly when the screening or Q&A has ended so we can prepare the room for the next screening.
- Quiet in the hallways is appreciated so as not to disturb other film viewers.
- Please refrain from wearing strong scents and tall hats.
- You will be sitting on plastic classroom chairs, or rental chairs. You can bring your own cushion or rent one from the Grandmothers to Grandmothers booth. Daily cushion rental is for a minimum $2 donation to the Stephen Lewis Foundation (which assists HIV-related grassroots projects in Africa). They also offer free cushion parking – if you have to leave the building they'll store it; you can pick it up when you return.

- Have a bulky coat? Grandmothers to Grandmothers will provide coat check service for a minimum $2 donation.
- This is a cash-only event. There is no bank machine on site.
